

THE UNIVERSITY OF WARWICK

Warwick Economics Summer School 2014 21 July – 8 August

Delivered by world-leading economists including Nick Crafts, Andrew Oswald and Ariel Rubinstein and including an inspirational programme of evening speakers including Professor George Akerlof, Lord Gus O'Donnell and Lord Robert Skidelsky.

Excellence in the Heart of England

The Warwick Economics Department is widely recognised as a world leader in economic research and education. Our exciting new Summer School will enable more students to benefit from our excellent teaching and academic expertise.

Whether you want to boost your core knowledge, or are looking for something a bit more specialised, we have a course that is right for you. Our Summer School really does cater for everyone, with our new course on the Fundamental Principles of Economics aimed at people who do not have an economics background.

COURSES

Duration: 3 weeks

Core Courses for Economics Undergraduates – Intermediate Level

Taught by our top Faculty members, these courses are designed to deepen understanding in core areas of Economics and will reflect the highest standards of Warwick learning.

Core Microeconomics

Core Macroeconomics

Core Econometrics

Specialist Courses for Economics Undergraduates

Taught by our world-leading academics, these courses will provide a thorough grounding in these exciting areas of economics.

Behavioural Economics

Competition and Regulation

Conflict and Negotiation

Economic History

International Development

Money and Banking

Political Economy

Everything you need to know as a Non-Economist – the Fundamental Principles of Economics

Economics is the issue of our times and influences almost every aspect of our lives. This exciting new course will be taught in a non-technical way and will provide a sound knowledge of the key principles of Economics. This course is open to anyone who is curious about Economics. There are no entry requirements and we welcome individuals from all backgrounds, including students who are currently studying another subject but who want to broaden their knowledge in another discipline.

10%
EARLY BOOKING DISCOUNT
For applications received by the end of April 2014

Inspirational Evening Programme

Reflecting Warwick's enterprising approach, our Summer School also offers a unique and inspirational evening programme of interactive sessions with eminent economists and public figures. Speakers currently confirmed include winner of the 2001 Nobel Prize in Economics Professor George Akerlof, Lord Gus O'Donnell, former Cabinet Secretary and Head of the UK Civil Service and Lord Robert Skidelsky, Professor of Political Economy and prize winning biographer of John Maynard Keynes.

Residential and Social Programme

We have a range of accommodation and catering packages and an exciting programme of social activities on offer which will provide students with the opportunity to explore Shakespeare's county and the surrounding area including London.

For more details on courses, the residential packages, social programme, admissions and fees please see the website.

www.warwick.ac.uk/wess

Please apply online at www.warwick.ac.uk/wess

Contact us for further information at:

T +44 (0)24 7615 1119

E wess@warwick.ac.uk

